Take a journey through the history of 20th-century motoring

- Seven inspirational galleries
- More than 60 vintage and classic vehicles
- Boundless members go free

Cotswold Motoring Museum and Toy Collection is an enchanting experience for the entire family

Located in the quaint and picturesque village of Bourton-on-the-Water, we have seven galleries packed with Edwardian, vintage and classic cars, caravans, motorcycles and original enamel signs, plus an intriguing collection of motoring curiosities and toys.

From the authentic blacksmith's workshop and replica garage from the early days of motoring to the Paved Paradise gallery of 60s and 70s memorabilia, a visit to the museum is a journey through time where vehicles are your guide.

Boundless members get free admission

If you work in or are retired from the public sector, armed forces, or civil service, you can join Boundless today and get free entry to the museum, plus a whole lot more. Boundless is a membership club that saves you money on amazing experiences and unforgettable days out for all members and family. To join and find out more, visit boundless.co.uk.

Explore our unique toy collection

Our extensive collection of old and new favourites – from pedal cars to bicycles, aeroplanes to scooters and jigsaws to vintage board games – will keep kids of all ages fascinated.

Home of TV's BRUM

Meet car superhero Brum, whose TV adventures always started and ended at the museum. There's even a special Brum to ride in.
